RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 1st September 1955

No. F.1-34/55-D.2.—The activities of the Government of India in the field of the education and welfare of the handicapped have been steadily increasing in recent years. For some time past, therefore, they have had under consideration the question of appointing a permanent body consisting of officials and non-officials to advise on all problems concerning the education and welfare of the physically and mentally handicapped and to assist in the formulation of new schemes for the purpose.

It has been decided to appoint an advisory body to be known as the National Advisory Council for the Education of the Handicapped consisting of experts in the education and welfare of the blind, the deaf, the orthopaedically handicapped and the mentally handicapped as well as representatives of the Ministries of Education and Health and the Central Social Welfare Board.

The following are the terms of reference which are meant to define the work of the Council:—

- (1) "To advise the Government of India on all problems concerning the education, training, employment and the provision of social and cultural amenities for the blind, the deaf, the orthopaedically handicapped and the mentally handicapped.
- (2) "To formulate new schemes.
- (3) "To serve as a liaison between the Government of India and voluntary organisations working in this field."

The Chairman and Secretary as well as the members of the Council shall be nominated by the Government of India. The Chairman and Secretary shall hold office during the pleasure of the nominating authority and all the other members will be appointed for two years in the first instance.

K. G. SAIYIDAIN, Addl. Secy.
